

WHO WILL BE THIRD SEED IN CLASS 4A, REGION 1?

Andalusia
6-4, 4-3

Defeated Williamson, lost to Escambia County

Williamson
6-3, 4-3

Defeated Escambia County,
lost to Andalusia

Escambia County
5-4, 4-3

Defeated Andalusia, lost to Williamson

The three teams had no similar non-region opponents. So for 4A teams, the next tie-breaker is based on points accumulated by defeated non-region teams in any classification except 1A.

Defeated
Opp - 0 wins

(Opp plays Luverne this week)

Trinity - 4 wins

(Trinity plays St. James this week)

Total to Date - 4 pts

Defeated

LeFlore- 3 wins

(LeFlore plays Selma this week)

B.C Rain- 0 wins

(BCR plays Gulf Shores this week)

Vigor- TBD

Total to Date - 3 pts

Defeated
Wilcox Central-
0 wins

(Wilcox Central plays Marengo
County this week)

Total to Date - 0 pts

WHAT NEEDS TO HAPPEN FOR ANDALUSIA TO ADVANCE?

1. Vigor must defeat Williamson. (A win for Williamson would add 8 points to their calculation).

Plus 1 of these four things:

1. Opp must defeat Luverne; or
2. Trinity must defeat St. James; or

3. Selma must defeat LeFlore; or
4. Gulf Shores must defeat B.C. Rain

Possible Scenarios:

1. If Andalusia beats Williamson in this calculation, Andalusia is the No. 3 seed, and Williamson would be the No. 4 seed.
2. If Andalusia ties Williamson in this calculation, based on head-to-head, Andalusia would be

- No. 3 seed and Williamson would be No. 4 seed, based on head-to-head with Escambia County.
3. If Williamson is the No. 3 seed, the No. 4 seed would be decided by head-to-head, and Escambia County would be the No. 4 seed.